Paris can easily overwhelm you when you visit for the first time: It is so easy to get lost, or even worse, get stuck spending half of your day waiting on long lines and wasting your precious time. Here are a few tips to help you make the best out of your time in Paris.

1 Paris Cabarets are famous around the world! If you wish to see a show, you have to book it in advance as they sell out quickly! We have managed to get you the best online offers possible for The Moulin Rouge, Lido, Crazy Horse and Paradis Latin! Get your tickets today and save money and time.

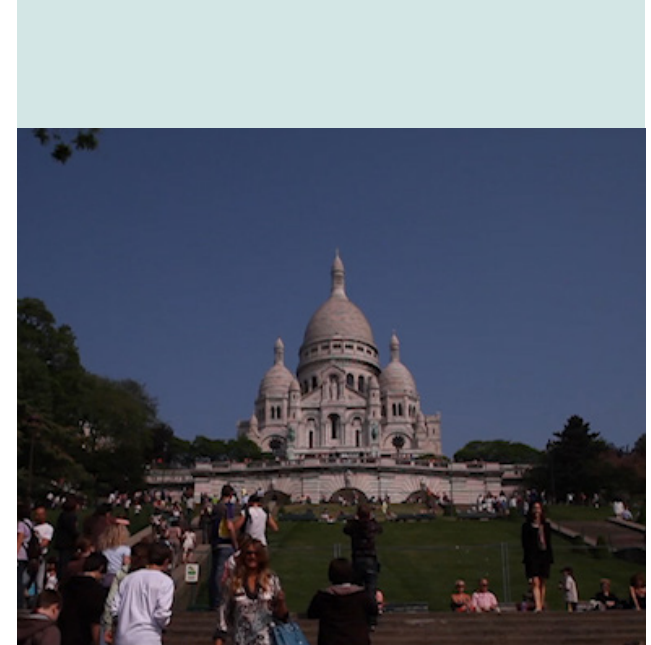

2 Can't wait to visit the Eiffel Tower or the Louvre Museum? These attractions are the most popular attractions in the city, so the lines could take up to three or four hours! If you don't want to waste your vacation time, pre-book your tickets today and get the «Skip the line» option. Another idea is to book a guided tour that includes these attractions and avoid the lines altogether.

3 If you are thinking of visiting many attractions, you should check out the Paris Pass. By booking this pass you will gain entrance to 44 attractions, including the Palace of Versailles, Arc de Triumph, The Louvre, «hop on hop off» bus, a luxurious cruise, and more.

4 The Palace of Versailles is located outside of Paris; the lines to enter are long, and you will need several hours to see it all. So if you are on a tight schedule, you might consider avoiding the palace altogether; or you could instead join a half-day guided tour, that will take you from the heart of Paris, skip the long line, and let the professional guide direct you to the most important places in the palace.

5 Ever wondered why Paris is called the city of lights? To find out, spend at least one night like a tourist! Take a tour, relax on a cruise, climb the Eiffel Tower at night, see all the lights, and enjoy the most romantic scenery in the world! Check out this tour, for example, or see our cabaret and night offers for even more ideas.

PARIS PASS

The Paris Pass: If you are the kind of traveler who enjoys getting the most out of your vacation, the Paris Pass might be just the thing you need. This is a holiday upgrader! By booking the pass for 2, 4 or 6 days, you could visit unplanned places and enjoy new experiences, like a French wine tasting for example. The Paris Pass helps you explore the city at its best and includes using the hop-on hop-off buses, Seine cruise (38 euros), an entrance to the Paris Story attraction (10 euros), Wine tasting (30 Euros), and entrance to the Gravin Wax museum (22 euros). Also included are these top attractions: the Louvers, The Orsay and Dali museums, the Arc de Triomphe, Palace of Versailles, the Pantheon and many more. With the pass are included useful travel cards worth 9.75 euro per day, reducing your travel time between the attractions.
